John F. Docherty
U.S. Magistrate Judge

If not held immediately upon defendant's first appearance, the hearing may be continued for up to three days upon motion of the Government, or up to five days upon motion of the defendant. 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(2).

A hearing is required whenever the conditions set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142 are present. Subsection (1) sets forth the grounds that may be asserted only by the attorney for the Government; subsection (2) states that a hearing is mandated upon the motion of the attorney for the Government or upon the judicial officer's own motion if there is a serious risk that the defendant (a) will flee; or (b) will obstruct or attempt to obstruct justice, to threaten, injure, or intimidate, or attempt to threaten, injure, or intimidate a prospective witness or juror.
